and Alexandria railroad after sunset.

converge, such a let the advance of reach the Manassas road directly with formed-Gen. Hal's division on the right;

Gen. Evell promptly made dispositions to mand. But the 14th South Carolina regi- Potomac. enemy, of not less than a brigate exca, their volleys into each other as the dis- making a total loss of 4387. from the captured property. It was vast the wood and railroad cut with great me, crossed the Rappahannock, striking night across to the Warrenton and Alex- my rear, endangering the safety of my the enemy in his rear, making his bril- andria turnpike, pursuing the road to ambulances and train. Upon being ad. and night attack upon his camp at Cat Sudley mill, and crossing the turnpike in vised of this by Gen. Stuart, I sent a body but's Station, capturing many prisoners, the vicinity of Groveton, halted near the of infantry to drive them from the wood. personal baggage of Gen. Pope, and his battle field of the 21st of July, 1861. Ew- But in the meantime, the vigilant Pelham disputch book, containing information of ell's and Hill's divisions joined Jackson's had unlimbered his battery and dispersed value to us in this expedition. In the on the 28th. My command had hardly that portion of them which had reached evening we moved near Jeffersonton, Pur- concentrated north of the turnpike before the wood. At a later period, Maj. Patrick, sning the instructions of the commanding the enemy's advance reached the vicinity of the cavalry, who was by Gen. Stuart General, I left Jeffersonton on the morn- of Groveton from the direction of Warren- entrusted with guarding the train, was ing of the 25th, to throw my command ton. Gen. Stuart kept me advised of the attacked, and aithough it was promptly latween Washington City and the army general mevements of the enemy, whilst and effectually repulsed, it was not with. of Gen. Pope, and to break up his cai'road Col. Rosser, of the cavalry, with his com- out the loss of that intrepid' officer, communications with the Federal Capitol. mand, and Col. Bradley T. Johnson, com- who fell in the attack whilst set-Taking the route by Amissville, crossing manding Campbell's bridge, remained in ting an example of gallantry to his men Hedgeman river, one of the tributaries of front of the Federals and operated against | well worthy of imitation. During the the Rappaliannock, at Henlon's Mill, and their advance. Dispositions were prompt- day the commanding General arrived, and moving via Orleans, we reached the vicin- ly made to attack the enemy, based upon also Gen. Longstreet with his command. ity of Salem, after a severe day's march, the idea that he would continue to press On the following day, 30th, my command forward upon the turapike towards Alex- occupied the ground and the divisions On the next day 28th, the march was andria. But as he did not appear to ad- the same relative position to each other continued diverging to the right of Salem, vanco in force and there was reason to be- | and the field which they held the day becrossing the Bult Run Mountain through lieve his main body was leaving the road, fore, forming the left wing of the ermy. Thorough Gap, and passing Clainesville, and inclining towards Manassas Junction, Gen. Longstreet's command formed the we reached Briston Station on the Orange my command was advanced through the right wing. A large quantity of artilwoods, leaving Groveton on the left, until lery was posted upon a commanding emi-At Gainsville I was joined by General it reached a commonding position near near near near near structure, who after leaving the vicinity of Bronner's house. By this time it was near After some desultory skirmishing and Waterloo Bridge, about two o'clock a. m., sunset, but his column appeared to be heavy cannonading during the day, the had by a rapid march, come up in time to moving by with its flank exposed. I de- Federal infantry about four o'clock in the ren fer all useful assistance. He kept termined to attack at once, which was vig- evening, moved fro a under cover of the moon my right flank during the residue of orously done by the divisions of Taliaferro | wood and advanced in several lines, first the day. My command was now in rear and Ewell. The batteries of Wooding, engaging the right but soon extending its of Pope's army, separating it from the Poague and Carpenter were placed in po- actock to the centre and left. In a few Federal Capital and its base of supply, sition in front of Stark's brigade, and momen so ir en r line was engaged in a TUAL, of Philadelphia, has established As we approached Bristoe Station the above the v lage of Groveton, and firing theree and sanguinary struggle with the an agency in this section of the State, and sound of cars coming from the duect on over the heads of our skirm siers, poured enemy. As one line was repulsed, anothof Warrenton Junction, was hea a and a heavy fire of snot and shell apon the en- er took its place and pressed forward as Gen. Ewell divided his force so as to take emy. This was repended to by a very if determined by fo.ce of numbers and s unliancous posse sion of the two men's heavy fire from the enemy, forcing our lary of assault, to drive us from our posi- of this city. of the Rangoad. Col. Monford who the batter es to select another position. By tions. S. impetuous and well sustained We bespeak for them a large and profits-2 of Virginia cavalry, co-operated in this time, Talaferro's command, with were these ensets as to induce me to send Two trains of curs and some Lawton's and Tramble's brigades on his to the commanding General for reinforceprisoners were captured, and the largest left, were advanced from the woods to the ments, but the t mely and galiant advance Important to Medical Students. portion of the Federal force at that no at open field, and were now moving in gallant of Longstreet on the right, relieved my making its escape. Learning that the en- style nat I they reached an orchard on the , troops from the pressure of overwhelming emy had collected at the Manusses once right of our line, and were less than a hun-numbers and gave to those brave men the College, (Louisville, Ky.,) appreciating tion, a station about seven myles distant, dred yards from a large force of the ene- chances of a more equal conflict. As the impoverished condition of the whole stores of great value, I doesned it happers my. The conflict here was figree and san- Longstreet pressed upon the right the tant that no I me should be lost in secur- gainary. Although largely reinforced the Federal advance was checked, and soon a big them. Notwitastanding the Jarkness enemy did not attempt to advance, but general advance was ordered. Eigerly of the night, and the fatiguing murch maintained their ground with obstinate and fiercely did each brigade press for who, sufficiently educated to study mediwhich would since dawn, be over thirty determination. Both lines stood exposed word, exhibiting in parts of the field cine and of good character, is unable to mules, before reaching the Junction, B.ig. to the discharge of musketry and artiflery, scenes of close encounter and murderous pay for his education. To secure this val-General Trimble volunteered to proceed [natil about 9 o'clock, when the enemy strife not witnessed often in the turmoil there forthwith, with the twenty-first slowly fell back, yielding the field to our of hattle. The Federals gave way before North Carolina, (Leent, Col. Fulton com- troops, The loss on both sides was heavy, enr troops fell beck in disorder and fled ment of the facts, should be made to Dr. manufug) and the twenty-first Georgia, and among our wounded were Maj, Gen. precipitately, leaving their dead and E. S. Gaillard, Dean, Louisville, Ky. Major Glover commanding) in all, five Ewell and Prig. Gen. Talaierro, the latter, wounded on the field. During their handred men, and capture the place. I latter a few months was able to resume his retreat the artillery opened with destrucaccepted the gallant offer, and gave him er- duties, the former, I regret to say, is still tive power upon the fugitive masses. The does to move without delay. In order disabled by his wound, and the army thus infantry followed natif darkness put an to increase the prospect of success, deprived of his valuable services. end to parsuit.

for the defence of the place, and captured the Smart horse artidery, who dashed for- were collected from the battlefield. elect gaus, with seventy two horses, equip- ward on my right and opened upon the It being ascertained next morning that pious services of the day will be one of m and ammunition complete, immense enemy at a moment when his services the Federal army had retreated in the diof commissary and quartitimas were much needed. Although the enemy retion of Centreville, I was ordered by are fore, appared of two hundred new ar well of under cover of mgot, and left the commanding General to turn that trais a number grat Transle also reports us in quart possession of the field, he did position. Crossing Bull Run at Sudiev the college of nearly three handeed prise not long permit as to remain in retive, or | Ford, thence pursuing a county road notic led Mr. Sumner to move the erasure of the land seventy herses, in doubt as to his intention to renew the we reached the Little River turnpike, the names of domestic battles from the and say of those belonging to the artill emflet. The next morning I found that | which we followed in the direction of Fairare bronder recovering over two hundred he had about ened the ground occupied as fax Court House until the troops halted the rows. The next meeting the divisions the buttle field the evening before, and for the night. Early next morning Sept. (it will be remembered, in the second year under the command of their rats Will and had moved further to the east, and to my list, we moved forward, and late in the of the war. This fact will not be forgot-

the division of trea. Evel remaining at and the Feneral capital. My troops on combat with the enemy, who were in posi-Busine Station. About a mile before this day were distributed along and in the Ition on our right and trout, covering his to the lo from firstor Fration reached Alexandria, stretching from the Warren- Liveir's division, Gen. Lawton commendresonantion, they were fired upon by a tou burnpike in the direction of surtly lug, in the centre; and Jackson's division. ment a namery of the enemy posted in the mill. It was merrly no ig the excavation | God. Statics communiting, on the left-all This deliber was soon driven oil, and resonable was formed on the 20th, Jackson's brigades of Branch and Field, Co., Brockthated in the direction of Centreville .- division and a Reg Gen. Bank , and the enbrough commanding the latter, were so in after a considerable body of Fieleral argut of Field's division, under Br g. Gen. sent forward to teel and engage the enemy. indicary, under Bog, Gen. Taylor, of New Lawton, in the centre and H h's division A cold and drencarny founder shower the man rule will As xandra in the cars, o'clock the Federal artiflery opened with into the faces of our troops. The two but it cosmed borand to recover the post spirit and animat on apon our right, which beignies gallantly engaged the enemy, but with great sparit and determination, and brough and Lutimer, under Maj. Shuma- d sorder and falling back. and wounded on the held. Several bris pressed forward in defiance of our fatal By the folio heavy force an interval of near a hundred fax C. H. and had moved in the direction living." Our loss was small. In the afternoon and seventy-live yards, which separated of Wa-hington City.

main command at Manassas Janction, and ports that six separate and distinct as- were skillfully cared for by medical direct above stated. Her funeral will take place since the war. orders were accordingly given for the sanits were thus met and repulsed by his tor, Dr. Hunter McGuire. In the trans- from the Home this morning at 9 o'clock, withdrawal of his forces north of Broach division, assisted by Hays' brigade, Col. mission of orders I was greatly assisted and the remains will be interred in the to be found at the first-class hotels of the interior during the expedition, by my staff, viz: Rock Creek Cemetery. In the death of besides OYSTERS, ESCALLOPS, SOFI CRABA, a portion of the troops were actively en- brigade of Gen. G.egg, which, from its A. Smead, assistant inspector general; Miss Poe it is believed that the last of the TURTLES, and the varieties of fish abounding in giged, and the enemy advancing, and yet position on the extreme left, was most Major E. F. Paxton, acting assistant ad- family, and, indeed, of the immediate relbe withdrawal of the infinitry and artil- exposed to the enemy's attack, had nearly jugant general; Capt. R. E. Winbourn, atives of the gifted young poet, Edgar Allery was conducted with perfect order, expended its ammunition. It had suffered chief signal officer; 1st L ent. R. Donglas, len Poe, has passed away. - [Washington Creat. Furly closing up the rear. The Fed- severely in its men, and all its field officers assistant inspector general, 1st Lieut. J. Chronicle. trals halted near bristoe Station, and Gen. except two were killed or wounded. About | G. Morrison, aid de camp, and Col. Wm. of the 5th Virginia cavalry bounding up take some repose after seven hours of the battle of Groveton as to be unable to scended from the sky into the centre of Calendar Month, 45.00 Premiums. his rear to Manuscus. The des ruction of sovere service and Gen. Early's brigade, of go further with the army. Ordnance, quar- the street, directly on the head of Paul the rangond bridge accoss broach Ran Ewell's division, with the 8th Louisiana termaster and commissary departments Hennis, and there exploded with a terrific cursionists, War entrusted to theut (now Captain) regiment took its place. On reaching his were well managed by their respective report. The hair was burned from his Boswell, of the eagineer corps, under position, Gen. Early found that the enemy chiefs, Majs, G. H. Baer, J. Harman, and scalp, the blood oozed from his ears, a whose superintendence the duty was had taken possession of the railroad and a promptly and efficiently executed. Orders piece of wood in front, there being at this Were given to supply the troops with ra- point a deep cut, which furnished a strong tions and other articles which they could defence. Moving through a field, he ad. properly make subservient to their use vanced upon the enemy, drove them from 10 quantity and of great value, comprising slanghter, and followed in pursuit some 50,000 pounds of bacon, 1,000 barrels of two hundred yards. The 13th Georgia at Almighty God. We should in all things rolled and curled upon itself, leaving the corn-beef, 2,000 barrels of salt pork, 2,000 the same time advanced to the railroad acknowledge the hand of Him who rules in corpse a shocking spectacle, which those MILLINERY, LADIES FANCY, FURNISHING barrels of flour, quartermaster's ordnance, and crossed with Early's brigade. As it heaven and rules among the armies of men. who saw could never forget. and sutler's stores, deposited in buildings was not desirable to bring on a general In view of the arduous labors and great and filling two trains of cars. Having engagement this evening, Geo. Early was privations the troops were called to endure, appropriated all that we could use, and recalled to the railroad, where Thomis. and the isolated and perilous position throughing that the residue should again Pender and Archer had firmly maintained which the command occupied, waile enfall into the hands of the enemy, who took their positions during the day. Early kept | gaged with the enemy, we can but express possession of the place the following day, his position there until the following the grateful conviction of our mind, that orders were given to destroy all that re- morning. Brig. Gen. Field and Col. God was with us and gave to us the victory mained after supplying the in a diste Farno (commanding Hays' brigade) were and unto his His holy name be the praise. wants of the army. This was don the severely wounded. Gen. Trimble was also I am, General, very respectfully, your obe-

meantime Gen. Stuart, who had preceded | Gen. Taliaferro moved his division that force of the enemy penetrated the wood in

Major Gen. Stuart, with a portion of has This obstinate resistance of the enemy | Our loss was heavy: that of the enemy | The observance of Decoration-day will cavalry was directed to move for ward, and, appears to have been for the purpose of as shown by the battlefield, of which we this year be peculiarly marked by tender as the ranking officer, to take command of protecting the flank of his column until were in possession much heavier. Among mention of the soldiers in gray. There the expedition. The duty was cheerfully it should pass the position occupied by the losses were Col. Baylor, commanding med to it, our roops. Owing to the difficulty of get- Winder's brigade, who fell in front of his has never been any tone of asperity or hos and most promptly and succe study exe- ting artiflery through the marsh, I did brigade, whitst nobly leading it on to the tility in the memorial addresses, but affeccuted Notwithstanding the Federal fire not have so much of that arm as I desired charge. We captured eight pieces of arof muskers and artiflery, our infinity at the ovening of the engagement; but tillery, with their eassens, and six thousdispersed the Federal troops placed there this want was met by Maj. Pediam, with and five hundred and twenty small arms

Assisted by the latterns of Posgue and enemy moved around more to our left, Pender were then thrown into the figut, watched their pathway. They followed a Carpenter, and some of Gen. Hell's divise to another point of attack. His next of Soon a portion of Ewed's division became flag that was as dear to them as was to us ion, and apparently seeing there was dan fort was directed against our left. This ragaged, the conflict raged with great fury the 'star-crossed banner that has long per of its retreat being out off by our other was reput etty the batteries of Braxton, the enemy obstinately and desperately since taken its flight to greet the warrior's troops if it continued to move forward, it | Crensuaw and regian. About 2 o'clock, | contesting the ground until their Generals | soul;' and he that worthily speaks for the soon commenced retreating, and, being p. m., the Federal infantry, in large force, Kearney and Stephens fell in front of dead or living must say that no feeling of hieatly upon the beach. subjected to a heavy fire from our letter asyanced to the attack of our lett, occu Thomas brigade, after which they retired hate to the Northern dead, or those who

of the same day, heavy columns of the the right of Gregg's from the left of chemy were seen approaching Bristoe Sta- Thomas' brigade. For a short time, taking the road by Dranesville and Leestion from the direction of Warrenton Bregg's brigide, on the extreme left, was burg, and on the 4th bivonacked near the duction, and on the right of the radroad, isolated from the main body of the con. Big Spring, between Leesburg and the scriously wounded. During the day, a dient servant,

W. J. Hawks.

A MOTHER'S PRAYER.

Father ! in the battle fray, Shelter his dear head I pray; Nerve his young arm with the might Or justice, liberty and right, Where the red hail deadliest falls, Where stern duty loudly calls, Where the strife is fierce and wild-Father guard, O guard my child.

Father, if my woman's heart-Frail and weak in every part-Wanders from Thy mercy seat, After those dear roving feet, Let Thy tender, pitying grace, Every selfish thought erase! If this mother love be wrong, Pardon, bless and make me strong

If new sorrow should befail, And my noble boy should fall, If the bright head L | ave blessed, On the cold earth finds its rest-Still with all the mother heart, Torn and quivering at the smart, Lyiela him, 'neath thy chastening rod, To his country and HIS God !

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that that old and reliable Life Insurance Company, THE PENN MUplaced it in the hands of Roberts & Henderson, the well known Insurance Agents ble business.

The Trustees of the Louisville Medical country, have determined to grant a Beneficiary Scholarship to any young man, nable aid, application, with a full state-

Decoration Day.

The following article appeared in Harpers Weekly several weeks ago:

clusion of the dead of the lost cause in the the whole country together for its healing. It was the forecast of this sentiment that flags of the regular army; and he did so, collegers, moved to Mannasas June on, left, placing huns of between my command evening Ox Hill, came in ten in the carnest addresses which this beautiful day always calls forth But the Janearon, Col. Barley ens vicinity of the cut of an unfinished rails ling of retreat from C introvalle to Fairfex; none of the orators will express this fee!of the real and it person a regiment of Fed- road, in a hal as a part of the track to Court House. Our line of battle was ing of friendly union in respect for the memery of the dead of the war more eloquently than a soldier of the other side. Major Thomas G. Jones, who said on the

"And while we ponder thus the mind carries us Northward, where the tombsdersey, rame in signs, having, the believest on the befig. In the inorming, at cut ten swept over the field at this time, striking not of our dead-are whiter than the sands of the sea and more numerous than the stars in the heavens. In them lie men of previous night. The advance was made Pougue, Carpenter, Dement, Brocken- Branch's brigade as to produce in it some same language and worshipped the same sea-breeze, while the addition of covered plazzas God. Fond mothers sent them to battle, though a leader worthy of a better cause. ker, this lasted for some time, when the The brigades of Gregg, Thomas and agonized prayers and addightful court through which to chase the mourn them, pervades this Memorial Day! By the following morning the Federal One touch of pity makes the whole world once enjoy the exhilarating effects of salt water. gades of Gen. Holl's division pressed for and destructive fire with great determinas army had entirely disappeared from our kin. From scenes like this, where the and learn the art of swimming. ward in pursuit. In this conflict, the tion, a portion of it crossing a deep cut in view, and it soon appeared, by a report warring sections mourn their dead, let the Foderar commander, Gen. Taylor, was the radread track, and penetrating in from Gen. Stuart, that it had passed Fair- statesman draw inspiration to guide the

Miss Rose Poe, the last surviving sister of the late Edgar Allen Poe, died early meet them. So soon as the enemy came ment, then in reserve, with the 49th Georwithin range, the batteries of his di- gia, left of Col. Thomas', attacked the my command, in its operations from the at the Epiphary Church Home, on H vision opened on them from their several exalting enemy with vigor, and drove Rappahannock to the Potomac, will show street, near Foliricenth, in the 68th year positions, as did also the 6.h and 8th them back across the callroad with great a loss of 75 officers killed, and 273 wounded, of her age. She came to this institution Louisiana and 60th Georgia regiments. - saughter. Gen. McGowan reports that 730 non-comm scioned officers and privates from Baltimore, where she had been living by their combined fire, two columns of the the opposing forces, at one time, delivered killed, 3274 wounded, and 35 missing, for some time with distant relatives, on the dist of March last, and was at the were driven back. But fresh columns soon tance of len paces. Assault after assault | Col. S. Crutchfie'd, chief of artillery, time in very delicate health. A week ago supplied their places, and it was obvious was made on the left, exhibiting by the discharged his duties we l. The conduct resierday she had a violent attack of conthat the enemy was advancing in heavy enemy great pertinacity and determination of officers and men during the various gestive chills, and though every effort was force. Gen. Eveli's instructions were, if but every advance was most successfully engagements described was such as to made to strengthen her she sank visibly, and that the season of 1874 under his management, hard pressed, to full back and gain the and gain the and gain as will be more attractive than any previous year gash an inch and a hallf long was found For further information, respecting the under his chin where the electric current detailed movements of troops and the con- had apparently made its exit; the shock duct of individuals, I would respectfully had broken his neek, and his body was refer you to the accompanying reports. literally skinned. All down his back and For these great and signal victories our chest and limbs to the soles of his feet, sincere and humble thanks are due unto the cuticle was peeled from the flesh and

THE FRANKLIN COURIER,

LOUISBURG, N. C.

G. S. Baker, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Fridays at two dollars per year. Advertising done at LIBERAL PATES.

THE TRIUMPH WASHER!! "OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD.

SIMPLEST! CHEAPEST !!

BEST !!!

Price Three Dellars.

A Marvel of Simplicity,

THIS MACHINE is

and yet possesses all the advantages of the mo complicated and costly Washing Machine.

THE TRIUMPH

has not been known in North Carolina for more than sixty days and yet it challenges its competitors to show a

A Combined List of Sales amounting in number to one third of that made by the Proprietors. We have in our possession testimonials of the most flattering character, showing beyond the shadow of a doubt, that must take the place of all other Washing Ma-We are offering the most liberal and satisfactory terms to active men and women who will make it a business to sell our machines. Four fifths of the territory remains untouched, ehterprising neighbor reaps the liaryest,

THE TRIUMPH

WALKER & WATSON, Sole Proprietors for North Carolina,

NEWBERN, N.C. CCHEDULE OF A. T. & O. R. R.

SPPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, Charlotte, N. C., Msy 19, 1874.

On and after Wednesday, May 20th, the following schedule will be run over this Road : GOING SOUTH $ 01

Leave Statesville, at Leave I avidson. Collegs, Arrive at Charlotte, 9 35 GOING SOUTH Leave Charlotte, at Leave Davidson College, 6 04 Arrive at Statesville;

All charges must be pre-paid on Freight offered for shipment to Section House, Henderson, Alexandriana and Caldwell's. These being "Flag Stations," the Company is not liable for any loss or damage to freight after it is unloaded, at either of the above points.
' No freight will be received by Agents, or forwarded unless the name of Consignee, and destination is discinctly marked thereou. J. J. GORMLEY, Superintendent.

ATLANTIC HOTEL

BEAUFORT, N. C.,

GEO. W. CHARLOTTE, Proprietor.

REMODELED AND REFITTED by its pres number, and of a larger average percentage, that ent owner, ROBERT D. GRAHAM, Esq., of any company in the United States. Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, is now open of the Because it is liberal in its management, for the reception of guests for the Season of 1874 prompt in its settlements, safe beyond a contin-

NEW MANAGEMENT,

This Hotel is situated immediately over the waters of the Harbor and commands a fine view of or section of the lattlefield of Morasses, of this authors bed road that my line of ou the right of the Later Confederate Decoration-day in Mont. the Banks, Old Topsail Inlet and the Atlantic Ocean." Owing to its peculiar situation flies and mosquitos are almost unknown.

> With the tide flowing semi-daily under the buil ding, its attractiveness in point of coolness and cleanliness, is superior to any Hotel upon the At-

and the Music Hail on the South front, affords a pleasant retreat from the glare of the sun by day, fleeting hours 'in the light fantastic" by night.

Among the chief attractions of this justly celabrated Summer Resort, is the Surf Bathing, and our old patrons will recognize a decided improve-ment in the n-at Dressing Rooms erected conve-

BATHING HOUSES upon an improved plan are attached to the Hotel, where guests may at

An expert corps of Musicians will add much to the enjoyment of the season. The choicest Wines and liquors are to be had a the Bar of the undersigned, located conveniently to the Dining Rooms. Billiards, Ten Pens, and Flying Trapeze are offered to those who relish such pastime.

CROQUET PARKS have been arranged for the use of guests free of charge.

An abundant supply of ICE has been provided

BOATS, fast sailing and well managed, can be had at any time for Picnic Parties, or for visiting such points as may be desired.

The suscriber, aided by contteous and competent assistants, and a corps of obliging and attentive servants, flatters himself that he shall be able

Special arrangements made with families and ex-All busir ess communications must be addressed to the undersigned. GEO. W. CHARLOTTE, Proprietor.

QETTINGER,

RALEIGH, N. C.,

Dealer in

AND HAIR GOODS, NEEDLE GOODS,

ZEPHYR, SAXONY and GER-MANTOWN WOOL,

A Complete Stock always on hand. MRS. OETTINGER attends exclusively to the Millinery Department.

Orders from a distance promptly attended to april 1

An Excellent Advertising Medium

MARCH 1st, 1874. Our regular weekly issue is now 1,320. The average increase is 50 copies. We confidently anticipate a bona fide subscription of 2,000 before the first of July. The popularity of the paper and its specialty justify this estimate. To the offices named below we send the number of copies an-nexed. And to other counties and towns of the State the r	emai	nder of our issue.

	Newbern,	93.	Elizabeth City 1
	Kinston	1.6	Wilson 2
	Goldsboro	23.	Hillsboro
			Lumberton
	Raleigh	64	Washington	į
		15	Johnston Co	į
	Favetteville		Lilesville 1
	Salisbury		Greensboro 2
١	Charlotte	37	Graham
	Tarboro	31	Alamance Co 2
	Statesville	16	Concord 1
*	Asheville	15	Warren Co 2
	Rocky Mount		Hickory
	Oxford	5

Advertising Raios: 1 m. | 3 m. | 6 m. | 12 m 1 Square, $ 2 50 $ 6 00 $10 00 $ 16 00 Column, 10 00 20 00 30 00 50 00 + Column: 15 00' 30 00' 50 00 80 00' and now is the time to apply for Agencies and I Column, 20 00 50 00 80 00 150 00 County Rights. Take hold now before your more

ONE INSERTION-1 Square $1; 1 Colmn, $4; 1 Column, $7; 1 Column, $12. STEPHEN D. POOL, NEWBERN, N. C.

N S U R A N C E A G E N C Y L

ROBERTS & HENDERSON,

Life, Fire and Marine.

BENN MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

of Philadelphia. Incorporated 1847.

Purely Mutual. ASSETS, ; ; ; ; $4,125,000 Dividends have been made annually since 1849. Its policies are non-forf iting after the third

Six reasons why you should insure in the PENN MUTUAL:

1st Bacause it is one of the oldest companies in the country, and past the day of experiments. 2d. Because it is a purely mutual Company. Every policy-holder is a member of the Company entitled to all its advantages and privileges. having a right to vote at all elections for trustees. and thus has an influence in its management. 3d. Because it has the largest accumulated fund-of any Life Insurance Company in the State of Pennsylvania.

4th. Because by economical management, ite rat o of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insu-

Report.)
5t . Because it has declared more dividends in gency, and its rates are as low as any first-class

Company in the country. Principle Features .- Small expenses, absolute ecurity, large return premiums, prompt payment of losses, and liberality to be insured. SAMUEL C. HUEY, President, SAMUEL E. STOKES, Vice-President.

JOHN W. HORNOR, Ass't Vice-Pres & Actuary H. S. STEPHENS, Secretary. Laberal arrangements made with Intelligen

Roberts & Henderson. General Agonts, Newbern N. C.

K. P. BATTLE, Pres. F. H. CAMERON, V. F.

W. H. HICKS, Secretary.

YORTH CAROLINA STATE LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

Raleigh North Carolina.

At the end of First Fiscal Year has issued over

CAPITAL

Frudent, economical and energetic manage ment has made it

900 Policies without sustaining a single loss.

A Successful Corporation.

This Company Issues every desirable form of Policies at as low rates as any other

First Class Company. Impose, no usejess restriction upon residence

Has a fixed paid up value on all policies after two annual payments.

Its entire assets are loaned and invested

At Home,

25.00 to foster and encourage Home Enterprises

Thirty days grace allowed in the payment

With these facts before them will the people of North Carolina continue to pay annually the a and upon thousands of dollars to build up For rign Companies. When they can secure insurance in a Company equally reliable and every dollar's premium they pay be loam d and invested in our own State, and among our own people ?

D. T. CARBAWAY District Agent,

Newbern, N. C. may 20.

Wilson, N. C., -SPECIALTY-

LETTERS PROMITELY ANSWERED.